The Everyday Archivist: Who’s using Perma.cc?

Brett Johnson, Clare Stanton
Perma.cc
Harvard Library Innovation Lab

IIPC 2019
What is Perma.cc?

- A user-driven tool to capture and play back individual web pages for citation in publishing or scholarship
- Originally created to address link-rot in legal opinions and scholarly publishing
- Free to all in academia and courts via their institutional library
Features

- Browser-based high-fidelity captures, short URL for citation
- WARC and screenshot capture
- Organizational tools for group management
- Bulk link creation
Adoption

- Over 250 academic libraries, including 80%+ of all U.S. Law Schools
- U.S. Federal and State courts
- Library of Congress, Department of Justice
- Over 1,000,000 user-created Perma Links
“...authors are strongly encouraged to keep a copy of any source that is not formally published, as a hedge against potential challenges to the research or data before, during, or after publication. [...] Copies may be kept in the form of printouts or as digital files (e.g., as PDFs or screen captures), or by means of a permanent link creation service such as Perma.cc.”

-online sources: Chicago Manual of Style, 17th ed.
Beyond academia + courts

- Recently began offering a paid-subscriber option
- Starting efforts focused on known areas: law firms
- Unexpected areas of interest:
Beyond academia + courts

- Non-profits
- Journalists
- Publishers
Thank you!

Contact:

info@perma.cc

Twitter:

@permacc