

Wednesday, 14 June

SAS: Chancellor's Hall and Room 349

Track 1, SAS	Track 2, SAS
09:00 Registration/Coffee
09:30 Opening remarks: Jane Winters and Nicholas Taylor
09:45 Opening plenary (Chancellor's Hall): Leah Lievrouw Web history and the landscape of communication/media research Chair: Nicholas Taylor
10:45 Break
Session 1A: Room 349 Chair: Peter Webster	Session 1B: Chancellor's Hall Chair: Marie Chouleur
11:15 Valérie Schafer & Francesca Musiani: Do web archives have politics?	11:15 Jefferson Bailey: Advancing access and interface for research use of web archives
11:35 Richard Deswarte: What can web link analysis reveal about the nature and rise of Euroscepticism in the UK?	11:45 Panel: Internet and web histories Niels Brügger (chair), Marc Weber, Steve Jones and Jane Winters
12:05 Tatjana Seitz: Digital desolation
12:15 Ralph Schroeder: Web archives and theories of the web
12:45 Lunch (with wine reception to mark the launch of Internet Histories , sponsored by Taylor & Francis)
Session 2A: Room 349 Chair: Ralph Schroeder	Session 2B: Chancellor's Hall Chair: Tom Storrar
13:45 Peter Webster: Utopia, dystopia and Christian ethics: early religious understandings of the web	13:35 Philip Webster, Claire Newing, Paul Clough & Gianluca Demartini: A temporal exploration of the composition of the UK Government Web Archive
14:15 Sally Chambers, Peter Mechant, Sophie Vandepontseele & Nadège Isbergue: Aanslagen, Attentats, Terroranschläge: developing a special collection for the academic study of the archived web related to the Brussels terrorist attacks in March 2016	14:15 Caroline Nyvang, Thomas Hvid Kromann & Eld Zierau: Capturing the web at large – a critique of current web citation practices
14:35 Lucien Castex: The web as a memorial: real-time commemoration of the November 2015 Paris attacks on Twitter	14:35 Andrew Jackson: The web archive and the catalogue
14:55 Gareth Millward: Lessons from 'Lessons from failure with the UK Web Archive' – the MMR crisis, 1998-2010	14:55 Nicola Bingham: Resource not in archive: understanding the behaviour, borders and gaps of web archive collections
15:15 Break
Session 3A: Room 349 Chair: Jonathan Blaney	Session 3B: Chancellor's Hall Chair: Jason Webber
15:45 Chris Wemyss: Tracing the virtual community of Hong Kong Britons through the archived web	15:45 Brendan Power & Svenja Kunze: The 1916 Easter Rising Web Archive Project
16:05 David Geiringer & James Baker: The home computer and networked technology: encounters in the Mass Observation Project archive, 1991-2004	16:05 Maria Ryan: The National Library of Ireland – 'Remembering 1916, Recording 2016'
16:30 Archives Unleashed: presentation of projects (Chancellor's Hall)
17:00 Close
18:00 Arrival: 18:00
18:30 Digital Conversations at the British Library Knowledge Centre
Web archives: truth, lies and politics in the 21st century Chair: Eliane Glaser Panellists: Jefferson Bailey, Andrew Jackson, Valérie Schafer and Jane Winters
20:30 Reception
21:30 End

Thursday, 15 June

SAS: Chancellor's Hall and Room 349 and BL: Knowledge Centre, Eliot

Track 1, SAS	Track 2, SAS	Track 3, BL: Knowledge Centre, Eliot
09:00 Registration/Coffee		08:30 Arrival/Registration
09:30 Plenary (Chancellor's Hall): John Sheridan Web archiving the government Chair: Jane Winters		Tools for web archives analysis & record extraction Chair: Nicholas Taylor
10:30 Break		09:00 Andrew Jackson: Digging documents out of the archived web
11:00 Plenary Panel (Chancellor's Hall): Web 25: histories from the first 25 years of the World Wide Web Niels Brügger, Elisabetta Locatelli, Matthew Weber and Federico Nanni		09:30 Nick Ruest & Ian Milligan: Learning to WALK (Web Archives for Longitudinal Knowledge): building a national web archiving collaborative platform
Session 4A: Room 349 Chair: Valérie Schafer	Session 4B: Chancellor's Hall Chair: Jason Webber	10:00 Gregory Wiedeman: Automating access to web archives with APIs and ArchivesSpace
12:00 Anat Ben-David & Adam Amram: Of DNS leaks and leaky archival sources: the history of North Korean websites in the Internet Archive	12:00 Pamela Graham: How do we do it? Collection development for web archives	10:30 Break
	12:20 Helena Byrne: A comparative analysis of URLs referenced in British publications relating to London 2012 summer Olympic & Paralympic Games Session ends at 12:40	Harvesting tools & strategies Chair: Ian Milligan
12:30 Lunch		11:00 Jefferson Bailey: Who, what, when, where, why, WARC: new tools at the Internet Archive
Session 5A: Room 349 Chair: Valérie Schafer	Session 5B: Chancellor's Hall Chair: Jonathan Blaney	11:30 Michele C. Weigle, Michael L. Nelson, Mat Kelly & John Berlin: Archive what I see now – personal web archiving with WARCs
14:00 Harry Raffal: Tracing the online development of the Ministry of Defence (MoD) and the Armed Forces through the UK Web Archive	14:00 Sharon Healy: The web archiving of Irish elections campaigns: a case study into the usefulness of the Irish web archive for researchers and historians	12:00 Lozana Rossenova: Containerised browsers and archive augmentation
14:30 Ian Milligan: Pages by kids, for kids: unlocking childhood and youth history through the GeoCities web archive	14:30 Steven M. Schneider: Blogging on September 11, 2001: demonstrating a toolkit to facilitate scholarly analysis of objects in web archives	12:30 Lunch
15:00 Niels Brügger, Ditte Laursen & Janne Nielsen: Mapping 10 years of Danish web history from 2005 to 2015	14:50 Federico Nanni: Two different approaches for collecting, analysing and selecting primary sources from web archive collections	Leveraging APIs Chair: Nicholas Taylor
	15:10 Bolette Jurik & Eld Zierau: Data management of web archive research data Session ends at 15:40	13:30 Fernando Melo: Arquivo.pt API: enabling automatic analytics over historical web data
15:30 Break		14:00 Nicholas Taylor: Lots more LOCKSS for web archiving: boons from the LOCKSS software re-architecture
Session 6A: Room 349 Chair: Sophie Gebeil	Session 6B: Chancellor's Hall Chair: Zeynep Pehlivan	14:30 Jefferson Bailey & Naomi Dushay: WASAPI data transfer APIs: specification, project update, and demonstration
16:00 Helge Holzmann & Thomas Risse: Accessing web archives from different perspectives with potential synergies	16:00 Sara Day Thomson: Preserving social media: applying principles of digital preservation to social media archiving	15:00 Break
16:30 Marta Severo: Using web archives for studying cultural heritage collaborative platforms	16:30 Jason Webber: The UK Web archive SHINE dataset as a research tool	Web archives platforms & infrastructure Chair: Andrew Jackson
17:00 Close	17:30 Close	15:30 Jack Cushman & Ilya Krejmer: Thinking like a hacker: security issues in web capture and playback

Workshops

Wednesday 14

15:45–16:30, Room 243

Emily Maemura, Christoph Becker & Ian Milligan:

Data, process, and results: connecting web archival research elements

Thursday 15

14:00–17:00 (Break 15:30), Room 243

Sigrid Cordell: Diving in: strategies for teaching with web archives

Friday, 16 June

SAS: Macmillan Hall and Chancellor's Hall

Track 1, SAS	Track 2, SAS
08:30 Registration/Coffee
Collection development panel Chancellor's Hall Chair: Nicola Bingham	Event collection panel Macmillan Hall Chair: Jane Winters
09:00 James R. Jacobs, Pamela M. Graham & Kris Kasianovitz: What's in your web archive? Subject specialist strategies for collection development	09:00 Valérie Schafer, Marie Chouleur, Louise Merzeau & Zeynep Pehlivan: Collecting and exploring the 'now' and the 'flow'. A case study on Paris attacks archives
10:00 Plenary (Macmillan Hall): Posters with lightning talks Chair: Olga Holownia Tommi Jauhiainen, Heidi Jauhiainen, & Petteri Veikkolainen: Language identification for creating national web archives
Martin Klein: Robust links – a proposed solution to reference rot in scholarly communication
Herbert Van de Sompel, Michael L. Nelson, Lyudmila Balakireva, Martin Klein, Shawn M. Jones & Harihar Shankar: Uniform access to raw mementos
Sumitra Duncan: NYARC discovery: Promoting integrated access to web archive collections
10:30 João Gomes: Arquivo.pt
10:35 Break
Collection policies & assessment Chancellor's Hall Chair: Ian Milligan	Changing records for scholarship & legal use cases Macmillan Hall Chair: Alex Thurman
11:00 Abbie Grotke: Oh my, how the archive has grown: Library of Congress challenges and strategies for managing selective harvesting on a domain crawl scale	11:00 Martin Klein & Herbert Van de Sompel: Using the Memento framework to assess content drift in scholarly communication
11:30 Ian Cooke: The web archive in the library: collection policy and web archiving – a British Library perspective	11:30 Nicholas Taylor: Understanding legal use cases for web archives
12:00 Kees Teszelesky: The web archive as a Rubik's Cube: the case of the Dutch web	12:00 Anastasia Aizman & Matt Phillips: Instruments for web archive comparison in Perma.cc
12:30 Lunch
Transnational web collections Chancellor's Hall Chair: Ian Cooke	Understanding user needs Macmillan Hall Chair: Nicola Bingham
14:00 Alex Thurman & Helena Byrne: Archiving the Rio 2016 Olympics: scaling up IIPC collaborative collection development	14:00 Peter Webster, Chris Fryer & Jennifer Lynch: Understanding the users of the Parliamentary Web Archive: a user research project
14:30 Els Breedstraet: Creating a web archive for the EU institutions' websites: achievements and challenges	14:30 Emily Maemura, Nicholas Worby, Christoph Becker & Ian Milligan: Origin stories: documentation for web archives provenance
15:00 Daniel Bicho: Preserving websites of research & development projects	15:00 Jackie Dooley, Alexis Antracoli, Karen Stoll Farrell & Deborah Kempe: Developing web archiving metadata best practices to meet user needs
15:30 Break
National web domains & legal deposit Chancellor's Hall Chair: Ian Cooke	Researcher case studies Macmillan Hall Chair: Alex Thurman
16:00 Sabine Schostag: Less is more – reduced broad crawls and augmented selective crawls: a new approach to the legal deposit law	16:00 Jane Winters: Moving into the mainstream: web archives in the press
16:30 Mar Pérez Morillo & Juan Carlos García Arratia: Building a collaborative Spanish web archive and non-print legal deposit	16:30 Cynthia Joyce: Keyword 'Katrina': a deep dive through Hurricane Katrina's unsearchable archive
17:00 Karolina Holub, Inge Rudomino & Draženko Celjak: A glance at the past, a look at the future: approaches to collecting the Croatian web	17:00 Colin Post: The unending lives of net-based artworks: web archives, browser emulations, and new conceptual frameworks
17:30 Closing remarks (Macmillan Hall): Emmanuelle Bermès & Jane Winters
17:45 End	