Against official Treasury advice, the new govt is scrapping National Standards from 2018, without anything to replace it with. This rash decision will leave parents in the dark about their child's achievement.

Labour will legislate this week to take $1060 off average wage workers from 1 April next year. Deeply ironic that a govt whose stated aim is to lift wages starts by cutting them. national.org.nz/this_is_the_we...

Unbelievable performance by this shambolic new Government in Parliament tonight. We're being treated to ministers filibustering (again) to keep debate going on a Bill that is unanimously supported by all parties. They still have no legislation of their own ready to consider.
