COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

Columbia University -- Mission Statement

"... The University recognizes the importance of its location in New York City and seeks to link its research and teaching to the vast resources of a great metropolis. It seeks to attract a diverse and international faculty and student body, to support research and teaching on global issues, and to create academic relationships with many countries and regions. It expects all areas of the University to advance knowledge and learning at the highest level and to convey the products of its efforts to the world."

Columbia University Libraries -- Strategic Directions

Advance Knowledge

"The Libraries build, shape, sustain, and make discoverable collections that transcend traditional boundaries of format and domain, offer enduring research value, and support the intellectual curiosity of Columbia faculty and students."

Title: Fourth Universalist Society in the City of New York
URL: http://4thu.org/
Collection: Burke Library New York City Religions
Description: The Fourth Universalist Society is a Unitarian Universalist congregation, a liberal religious presence in New York City since 1838, welcoming people of all cultural, religious, racial and ethnic backgrounds. Fourth U is the sole survivor of seven Universalist churches in New York City and now has about 150 members. Sunday Services are held at 11:00 AM on the Upper West Side location of Central Park West and West 76th Street. The tower and features of the sanctuary are replicas of the medieval tower and buildings at Magdalen College in Oxford, England.
